

3.2. Collaborations with health institutions

The University maintains a close collaboration with health institutions for specific programmes and also to facilitate work placements for students in the Health Sciences and Dentistry faculties.

3.2.1. Local collaboration

UIC Barcelona is dedicated to establishing and maintaining collaborations at local level, in order to improve the quality of life and the health of people in our community. These partnerships strengthen our direct impact on the immediate environment and facilitate the implementation of projects that benefit citizens.

Other local collaborations with health institutions

3.2.2. National collaboration

UIC Barcelona is an active member of the Spanish Network of Health Promotion Universities (REUPS) and collaborates in initiatives that promote health and well-being within the university community.

UIC Barcelona is also dedicated to establishing and maintaining collaborations on a national scale, as you can see in the following news article.

The Salud y Persona Foundation and UIC Barcelona have signed a cooperation agreement to improve people's psychological and emotional health. This cooperation will enable the two organisations to jointly develop scientific programmes, research projects and teaching activities in the field of psychological care and emotional health.

Other national collaboration with health institutions

3.2.3. International collaboration

UIC Barcelona is proud of its commitment to educational excellence and research through international collaborations. The Faculty of Dentistry is an active member of the ADEE (Association for Dental Education in Europe) and actively participates in the meetings of the ADEA (American Dental Education Association) and the ADEE, with presentations on double degrees and the general guidelines of Dentistry at international level, generating synergy among the member countries. Likewise, the Faculty of Dentistry is a member of the International Association for Dental Research (IADR).

Below are other international collaborations with health institutions that we have at UIC Barcelona.